FROM THE DESK OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

Congratulations to the Class of 2025! You have reached a significant milestone, and it is truly worth celebrating. This achievement was not easy; it reflects your hard work, growth, and resilience. You have overcome challenges, adapted to change, and emerged stronger and wiser than when you started.

Thank you for the years of building—not just structures or projects, but also friendships, traditions, and a culture that will leave a lasting impact. You infused everything you did with energy, creativity, and passion.

What you have contributed will continue to shape this place long after you have moved on.

As you embark on your next journey, carry the lessons learned, the laughter shared, and the pride in what you have built together. The road ahead is now yours to navigate. Keep moving forward, keep creating, and never forget the people and the place that played a vital role in shaping who you are today.

Young American Creative Patriotic Art Contest

Every year, VFW Auxiliaries across the country host the Young American Creative Patriotic Art contest. Auxiliary members work with schools to recruit local youth artists to enter artwork in the contest in one of the two categories, Creative Art and 3-Dimensional Art.

The Franklinville VFW Post 9487 Auxiliary has created a wonderful partnership with the Franklinville Central School high school art teacher to promote this contest. Auxiliary Member, Angela LaBarron spearheads the contest at the local level. With the help of Mr. Wangelin and Mr.

Spoor, FCS Art teachers, the number of participants at the local level has steadily increased over the past few years.

This year, there were seven entries made by Franklinville students, six in the Creative Art category and one in the 3-Dimensional art category. First place in the 3-Dimensional category went to Alexis Miller for her military boots sculpted out of clay that she titled "Retired". In the Creative Art category, first place went to Kierra Knobloch for her piece called "Remembering the Fallen", in second place was Addisyn Killingbeck with her artwork of the "Tomb of the Unknown", and in third place was Skylar Kent with her piece called "We Hold These Truths". FCS students Payton Callahan, Kylee Everly, and Kaylee Morgan were all recognized for their participation in the contest.

Recently, the Franklinville VFW Post 9487 Auxiliary hosted an awards ceremony at the VFW for all the artists and their families. They all received monetary awards and certificates of recognition. Alexis Miller and Kierra Knobloch's artwork advanced to the district level to be judged. The students will be notified directly if their pieces receive awards at the district level.

The artwork that wins at the district level advances to the state level, where students can win scholarship awards.

The Auxiliary would like to give a special thank you to Mr. Putnam, Mr. Hirsch, Mr. Wangelin, and Mr. Spoor for their continued support of this patriotic art contest. The auxiliary is excited to see this opportunity for young artists to grow in our area. They would also like to thank special guest Dee Ippolito, VFW Auxiliary District 6 representative, for attending the ceremony. The Auxiliary is grateful for the community support and looks forward to many more years of amazing artwork.
